The Gift of Peace
Our Lord has given to us
the gift of peace.
Jesus told his disciples in John 14:27a, Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. One of the Greek meanings of peace in this passage is
peace between individuals,
i.e. harmony.

HELLO FROM HELEN

Hello family,
Happy 32nd Anniversary New Image Ministries!
On Sunday, February 9th we came to church, had a great service with Pastor Michael and then...we got to come back at 3:00 pm for our Annual Congregational Meeting. We learned all about our financial status, what is new with Audio/Visual, received a list of all the upcoming events for the year 2020 and we heard from our Deacons Ken and Patricia harmony in the dictionary is “an arrangement of the contents of the Gospels, either of all four or of the first three, designed to show their parallelism, mutual relations, and differences”.

I believe we are understanding that our differences are a good thing and are given not to separate us but blend our hearts together in harmony in Christ. Then, our hearts will not be anxious or afraid (John 14:27b.), only motivated by love. God's peace, which goes far beyond anything we can imagine, guards our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus, Phil. 4:7.

We are enjoying our study in Hebrews and are learning of God's redemptive plan for the body of Christ. These studies bring peace, rest to our souls.

As Pastor Michael has been saying, (I love these words) “contemplate” (to look at or view with continued attention; observe or study thoughtfully), “gaze” (to look steadily and intently, as with great curiosity,

Barnett. It was wonderful and if you need a packet from that meeting, come and see me in the office and I will have one for you.

We were also advised that we have four new Deacons to work with our Deacons Ken and Patricia Barnett. The four new Deacons are: Dyan Overstreet, Frank Overstreet, James Sammons and Helen Caliendo. Congratulations!

After the meeting we all went into the Fellowship Hall. It was decorated so wonderfully by the “Beauty and Glory” committee, Vanessa Stephenson and Felicia Petruzzello. Thank you so much for always decorating and keeping us beautiful.

Chefs Jack Cooper and Peg Lynch made a delicious meal of Pot Roast, mashed potatoes, Carrots and green beans. Of course there were many other dishes brought to this meal. The desserts were plentiful and tasty with our eyes as well as our palates. There was an anniversary cake with a picture of our Unshakeable conference. It was amazing. Here's to another 32 years of ministry and another and another and so on and so forth. We are blessed!

I think by now, most of us have seen all the beautiful renovations to the church. It is so beautiful. If you haven't seen them, come by and it would be my pleasure to show you how interest, pleasure, or wonder) on Christ. He is our peace.

beautiful the church has become.

Have a wonderful month everybody and until next month, God Bless!

1 Corinthians 15:10
But by the grace of God I am what I am; and His grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I labored more abundantly than all; yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

Anything that happens is God's grace.

The Difference

Author Unknown

I got up early one morning
And I rushed right into the day;

I had so much to accomplish
that I didn't have time to pray.

Problems just tumble
around me
And heavier came each
task;

"Why doesn't God help me?" I wondered
He said "But you didn't
ask."

I wanted to see joy and beauty
But the day toiled on, gray
and bleak;

I wondered why God
didn't show me,
He said "But you didn't
seek"

I tried to come into God's presence;

I used all my keys at the lock.

God gently and loving
chided;

"My child, you didn't knock."

I woke up early this morning
and paused before entering the day.

that I had to take time to pray.
