FREEDOM IN GOD

We just completed our annual conference for the year and the word for the year was Freedom. Our pastors delivered powerful messages and insight into the freedom that God through His son Jesus Christ has given us and that through this freedom we are able to actually "Live" the life that God has called us to live. One

Hello From Helen

Hello family,

We said "good-bye" to a beloved family member on the 7th of October. Lester Banks you will be missed, your presence is everywhere in the church and we all appreciate everything you have done for us. With much love, we say "good-bye" for now.

There was a lot of excitement in thing that stuck out to me on Saturday was that in our thoughts we sometimes believe that to follow God means that we are shackled and limited to the freedoms we have, we imagine a life of following God, going to church, and living a life dedicated and devoted to God as being too big of a sacrifice because then I cannot do the things I want, that I believe will make me happy. My thoughts lie to me and tell me that my freedom is better than God's freedom, but that is the opposite. Jesus came to set us free and scripture says that those who Christ has set free are what?.....Yes free indeed.

Friday night one of the scriptures was [Isa 49:26 NLT] 26 I will feed your enemies with their own flesh. They will be drunk with rivers of their own blood. All the world will know that I, the LORD, am your Savior and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Israel." I read this and see a picture of living a life unto myself is like me eating of my own flesh, I am communing with only myself unlike our monthly communion when we as the body of Christ come together and share of one another. I see that life is not about me and my selfish desires but also that if I live a life to God, which means to the people around me, that then my life becomes more fulfilling and my true desires are then fulfilled. The same with drinking the blood which represents life. There is no power in my blood but only in the blood of Christ. When I live a life thinking I don't need help, I don't need God, and again living a life to myself I am living in the lie that it is me that sustains me not God.

Which brings us to Sunday and the picture of the flesh being the veil that is being removed. [2Co 3:14, 16-17 NIV] 14 But their minds were made dull, for to this day the same veil remains when the old covenant is read. It has not been removed, because only in Christ is it taken away. ... 16 But whenever anyone turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. God is removing the veil so that we can see God in us and see God in each other. I've got to get past the flesh to see the true me and the true you. A conference is a good time to see the picture of what God is doing because it takes us all to make something this big happen. I couldn't do it by myself. God has called us to be a part of something bigger than me and it is the October, for starters the Dance Team has a new name, they will now be known as "Spirit In Motion". A very appropriate name for such beautiful and graceful young women. They truly are Spirits in Motion.

The Business Expo at the Lehigh Senior Center was in October. We gave away gift bags with information about the church as well as some very beautiful presents such as book marks and books. We even included the "Ask The Pastor" pads. There were two beautiful gift baskets that were raffled and Pastor Michael and Pastor Phil were there to present one of them.

The Freedom Conference (our annual conference) was amazing, musicians came from everywhere and got together with our band to form "United Praise" and WOW, the music was just incredible! Pastor Phil preached on Friday night, Richard Porzio preached on Saturday morning and Pastor Michael preached on Sunday, each one of them gave a message that was uplifting and powerful.

On Friday night we all got our yellow t-shirts with the words FREEDOM in white letters.

Saturday, with most of us wearing our t-shirts, we had a barbecue lunch of hamburgers and hot dogs with all the trimmings, great company and great music, great food.

Sunday was the closing service and it all seemed to go so quickly. It was just what we all needed. I can't wait until next year.

Of course Spirit in Motion danced during the conference and they were spectacular as always.

We have a new room, "The body of Christ which is where the true freedom is. Our scripture for this year's conference is 2 Cor 3:17 Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. The Spirit is inside us so the true freedom must also be inside. We have the freedom, and it is a freedom to "Live" not shackled by our thoughts because Christ came to set us free but "Live" for Christ and for each other. Turn to the Lord and He will take away that veil and you will find your "true" freedom.
