

LOVE YOU ANYWAY

I overspend and overeat
Sometimes bitter
And not so sweet
But He loves me anyway

I waste time and procrastinate
A little slow and sometimes late
But He loves me anyway

He looks past my faults and
Sees my need
If I keep the faith of a mustard seed
He loves me anyway.

Whether I cry or whether I laugh
Or roll my eyes,
Or speak untruth and tell some lies
He loves me anyway

If I slam the door and break the glass
He loves me, this too shall pass

Humble as pie
Or puffed with pride
His love for me won't be denied

My crazy thoughts or weird ways
He loves me for the rest of my days

Whether I'm rich or poor
He loves me more and more

Whether I'm here or in another place,
His love continues as well as His mercy and grace
He loves me anyway

Love,
Sister Donna Felton
February 17, 2025